Times of the tide are taken from the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey tables. The tides at Kahului and Hilo occur about one hour earlier than at Honolulu. Honolulu standard time is 10 hours 30 minutes slower than Greenwich time, being that of the meridian of 157 degrees 30 mins. The time whistle blows at 1:30 p.m., which is the same as Greenwich 0 hours 0 minutes. The sun and moon are for local time for the whole group.

AGAIN REPORTS ROUGH WEATHER

Bringing 248 sheep for the local market from Hawaii, the Mauna Kea arrived in port this morning. Excepting for the sheep mentioned, 500 Ohia ties and 239 packages of sundries, she had little on board. The rest of her freight composed five crates of sewing machines, twelve cords of slab wood, one crate of chickens, thirty-three empty beer kegs, sixty-six barrels of empty bottles and ninety-eight sacks of empty bottles.

The ship of the Inter-Island fleet again reports rough weather round the Islands, but Purser Phillips is inclined to believe that in a few days the usual calm conditions will prevail. The weather is not particularly bad at present, but the recent stormy weather has occasioned a heavy swell which still prevails. On the outward trip strong trade winds with heavy northerly swell were experienced, but when homeward bound the trades had moderated and the swell had veered round and came more from the northeast. However, the Mauna Kea was unable to effect a landing at Laupahoehoe on either trip. Outward passengers, mails and freight for this landing were put ashore at Hilo, and the mail on the homeward run was landed at Kawaihewa.

Purser Phillips' shipping report is an interesting feature of the weekly budget which he compiles. On the outward run he reports the Kailuani at Hakalau, and the Nihau at Hilo, while coming back he reports the Kailuani at Honokaa; passed Likilike off Kohala Point; Iwalaui loading sugar at Kailua to sail Friday afternoon for Manale; Mikahala at Lahaina, and passed Claudine when leaving Lahaina. The Mauna Kea visited Honouapo and reports rough weather there.

The following report on the Hilo shipping is also supplied by Purser Phillips: Steamer Missouri sailed on Wednesday evening for Salina Cruz; Hilonian arrived Wednesday morning from Kahului and sailed Thursday afternoon for San Francisco; the bark Albert has about finished discharging; the schooner Oceanic Vance arrived on Sunday from Puget Sound with lumber and is at the Railroad wharf discharging.

Regarding the weather in Hilo, he further reports that storms, accompanied by considerable rain, interfered with the working of the ship. A heavy swell is still running in the bay and it was found necessary to pull away from the wharf on both evenings that the Mauna Kea was in port.

While the Mauna Kea was at Hilo the Maui arrived with sugar for the Hilonian from Panahan.

In addition to the list of passengers to be found in another column the Mauna Kea had seventy-five on deck, comprising: Twenty-two Japanese, sixteen Portuguese, fourteen Hawaiians, six Chinese, five Russians, five whites, two each Koreans and Filipinos, and one Porto Rican.

The Mauna Kea will leave as usual for Maui and Hawaii ports on Tuesday at ten a. m. and will return next Saturday morning.

The Mauna Kea reports 109,392 bags of sugar awaiting shipment as under: Ohia, 14,150 bags; Waiakoa, 3000; Wainaku, 6000; Onomea, 6500; Pepee-keo, 5800; Honomu, 3000; Hakalau, 8000; Laupahoehoe, 2000; Ookaia, 4000; Kukalau D, 3631; Kukalau N, 4079; Hamakua 10,500; Paauhau, 9000; Honokaa, 9000; Kukuhale, 8350; Punahou, 4800; Honouapo, 7582; total, 109,392 bags.

OLD WANT ADVERTISEMENTS.

I want a young man who can read and write, mow and root a garden, use a gun at a deer and understand country sports and to wait at table and such like.

I want a complete young man that will wear livery to wait on a very valuable gentleman, but he must know how to play on a violin or a flute.

I want a genteel footman that can play on a violin to wait on a person of honor.

If I can meet with a sober man that has a counter tenor voice I can help him to a place worth thirty pound the year or more.—From Sampson's "History of Advertising."

Advice from San Francisco state: "When the Oceanic liner Sierra leaves here on February 4th on her next trip to Honolulu she will have a full list of passengers, according to General Passenger Agent L. A. Cockroft. With the opening of the new year the tourist travel is beginning to pick up, and soon the island boats will be carrying capacity crowds up and down. The Sierra will be in again from Honolulu the last day of this month."
